

Choc gets welcome support

CHOC Childhood Cancer Foundation provides support for children with cancer, and their parents.

In these difficult financial times Choc relies on the community for support to survive and continue to provide this important service.

Agie Govender, Choc regional manager, said Rosehill Primary has supported Choc for many years.

Principal Mrs R. Naidoo regularly hosts a tea for Choc because of its financial challenges.

The monies raised from the Choc tea contributes to supporting the board and lodge Choc provides for parents, and children with cancer. The organisation also thanked actress and entertainer Lisa Bobbert for ensuring the guests had a fun morning. - Supplied.
